FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 14.

A Royal Race.

Among the fine old kings that reign Upon a simple wooden throne, There's one with but a small domain, But, mark you, it is all his own.

And though upon his rustic towers No ancient standard waves its wing, Thick, leafy banners flushed with flowers, From all the fragrant casements swing. Ard here, in royal homespun, bow
His nut-brown court at night and morn—
The bronzed Field-Marshal of the Plough,

The Chancellor of Wheat and Corn. The Keeper of the Golden Stacks,
The mistress of the Milking Pail,
The bold Knights of the Ringing Axe,
The Heralds of the Sounding Flail.

The Ladies of the New Mown Hay, The Master of the Spade and Hoe, The Minstrels of the Glorious Lay, That all the Sons of Freedom know.

And thus, while on the seasons roll, He wins from the inspiring sod The brawny arm and noble soul
That serve his country and his God.

DISCOVERY OF A CAVE. - On last Sunday a party of boys from town discovered a cave on the south bank of the Rappahannock river, about four miles above the dain. They represent it to contain seven complete apartments. The rooms are on the right and left, and are separated by stone walls, and connected by small doors or apertures. These apartments are represented to be about five feet high and five feet square. We have no doubt this place was a rendezvons during the war for deserters and skulkers.-Fredericksburg Star.
